DEPARTED COMRADES TO BE REMEMBERED THIS MEMORIAL DAY

Elaborate Ceremonies to Mark Memorial Day, Veterans of Two Wars to March in Parade, Address to be Delivered at City Hall Plaza

In commemoration of the comrades who have gone to the great beyond, and as a tribute to their deeds of valor on the battle field, the comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic, the United Confederate Veterans, the Veterans of the Spanish-American War, and the Ladies of the Women's Relief Corps, will fittingly celebrate Memorial Day, a week from tomorrow with elaborate ceremonies on the City Hall plaza.

As in years past, a parade will be held, in which the above organizations, and the companies of the local National Guard will take place. The grand marshal has not yet been named.

The program will be patriotic throughout. Lincoln's Gettysburg address, without which no Memorial Day program is complete will be delivered by Forest Betts of the Phoenix High school. The program will be in charge of Capt. Prosper P. Parker, post commander of the Phoenix post G. A. R.

Following is the complete program:

Opening address, Capt. P. P. Parker, post department commander.

Invocation, A. McDole, department chaplain.

Lincoln's Gettysburg address, Forest Betts.

Original poem, Comrade Andrew Downing.

Patriotic song, Walter Hayt.

Address, Comrade W. E. Lockard.

Decoration of cenotaph, members of the Woman's Relief Corps.

Prayer, Rev. J. H. Jones.
